Notes:

- 1. Throughout the USA, the Epiphany of the Lord is now celebrated on the 2nd Sunday after Christmas; thus readings #20-ABC are used instead of #19-ABC.
- 2. In much of the USA, the Ascension of the Lord is now celebrated on the 7th Sunday of Easter; thus readings #58-ABC are used instead of #59-A, 60-B, or 61-C.
- 3. Selections from the Old Testament are used as the First Reading throughout most of the year; only during the Easter Season is the First Reading taken from the Acts of the Apostles.
- 4. On a few Sundays and major Feasts, a "Canticle" from the Old Testament is used in place of the Responsorial Psalm (between the First and Second Readings).
- 5. Selections from the NT Epistles are used as the Second Readings throughout the year, while the third/last reading is always from one of the four canonical Gospels.
